PressurePro™ TPMS Receives Reader's Choice Award

World leader in Tire Performance Management Solutions receives award from MotorHome Magazine

Harrisonville, MO: December 27, 2013: Advantage PressurePro, world leaders in Tire Performance Monitoring Solutions, is proud to have been again selected as a Reader's Choice Award Winner from MotorHome Magazine. The Reader's Choice Awards, handed out by Family Motor Coach Association, are handed out in December after three months of voting by MotorHome's subscribers in 26 different categories. A multiple award winner, PressurePro claimed the silver prize for 2013, after receiving over 15,000 'top pick' votes.

"PressurePro is very excited to be chosen again as a Reader's Choice Award Winner," stated Vanessa Hargrave, PressurePro's Director of Marketing. "As the Original provider of commercial and aftermarket TPMS solutions, we take our role as pioneers of TPMS technology very seriously. Providing American Made product and utilizing leading edge components ensures maximum reliability and durability, we also remain committed to maintaining the most extensive research & development commitment in the industry; all to ensure top quality product for our customers."

In addition to a sharp focus on providing top-of-the-line product, PressurePro also remains committed to providing advanced customer service and the most comprehensive product line.

"It makes me smile every time a customer calls in and is impressed that they get someone on the phone immediately that can assist them with questions or orders," stated Hargrave. "No one appreciates getting recording after recording or having to email generic addresses and wait for responses, so we pay close attention to provide immediate and personal responses to our customers."
